

Obituary worksheet

Collect the facts first and the sentences come much easier. There is a guide to the writing itself in the help section.

The facts a notice needs

Full name, and the name everyone actually used

Age

Where they lived

Date of death

Where they were born, and when

Their life

Work, and what they were good at

Military service

Education, if it mattered to them

What they did that was not work

Anything they would have wanted mentioned

Family

Survived by

Predeceased by

| Read the names aloud to somebody in the family before it is printed. A name left out of a published notice is remembered for years.

The service

When and where

Flowers, or donations to

Where to find the memorial page
